RE: MARK S. ESTABROOK adv. FAA
YOUR LETTER OF APRIL 7, 1993

Dear Mark:

Thank you for your letter of April 7, 1993, including changes to the facts recited in my letter of March 25, 1993.

Subject to the factual revisions of my March 25, 1993, letter as contained in your April 7, 1993, this will confirm that the undersigned undertakes your representation on an hourly basis. The file will be billed at the rate of $200 per hour, and statements will be generated on or about the 25th day of each month.

Besides paying for my time, case expenses will also be your responsibility, including, among other things, investigator's fees, expert witness fees, photocopying expenses, long distance telephone calls, travelling expenses, court reporter's fees, etc.

In the event this matter goes any further, I would request that you allow me to pursue discovery under the Freedom of Information Act ("FOIA").

Also, if the case goes any further, I would suggest that we bring Doug Moore into the picture. You can reach Mr. Moore at (404) 439-1766.

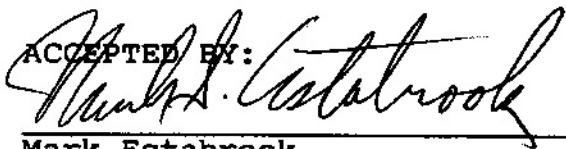

If the above and foregoing is satisfactory, please execute this letter in the bottom left-hand corner, keeping a copy for your records and returning the original to me.

Best regards,

Alan Armstrong
